Warning about impersonation on LinkedIn

It has been confirmed that a third party has registered an account on the social networking service (SNS) “LinkedIn” by impersonating one of our members. We have applied to LinkedIn to have the account in question deleted.

Please be aware that we do not conduct any business negotiations through SNS, including LinkedIn. If you are contacted by someone pretending to be a member of our company through SNS, etc., please be careful as there is a risk that they may be trying to obtain your personal information or conduct false business negotiations.
